

OPERATOR TRAINING

IPS conducts operator training either on site using the customer's crane or at our Duluth, MN facility using one of our newly rebuilt cranes.

During this training we cover both operational controls, as well as all the maintenance and inspection points on the crane. The basic systems that control the crane's various functions are also explained.

Operators are furnished with training materials, updated manuals, and maintenance log books with illustrations depicting all the maintenance points for their crane.